

PETEY'S LOCAL, WOMAN-OWNED BUSINESS HIGHLIGHT:

Maureen Pomeroy

POMEROY LAW P.C.

Maureen Pomeroy has been an attorney since 1999. She founded Pomeroy Law PC in 2014 after working for other firms in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. The firm represents business and non-profit clients in a variety of legal matters. She advises her clients on corporate and non-profit formation and continuance, licensing, drafting and reviewing contracts, and employment matters. She also provides consulting services for internal investigations and human resource issues that businesses and nonprofits may encounter. Maureen also defends employers in discrimination matters before the U.S. Department of Labor, EEOC, and state agencies that handle.

Maureen volunteers for a variety of local non-profits, including the Greater Newburyport Bar Association, Port City Women's Networking Group and Merrimack Valley River Feline Rescue, Inc.
